Previous Newsletter: Discussions on Mudharabah and Musyarakah

Mudharabah is a contract where the capital provider (known as rabbul mall, provides capital to the entrepreneur (known as mudarib) who contributes his or her skills in a business.

Musyarakah is an Islamic contract where two or more parties contributes capital to the business. Because all the parties to the arrangement contribute capital to the business, the partners will share any profit or loss arising from the business or arrangement.

Special Event coming May

On May 31st, GA Skylight Berhad will celebrate its 5th anniversary with a special evening event at a Equatorial Hotel, Kuala Lumpur. Clients, agents, and staff will be attending this celebration.

Shariah Perspective of Gold

Nowadays, companies invest in gold, recognizing its significant value in Islam as one of the Ribawi items.

Additionally, some companies use gold to reward employees or clients for their achievements or outstanding performance within the organization.
